Deputy Commissioner F. J. Mead,
of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Ottawa, is inspecting Alberta detachments. Quite a number of years ago Mr. Mead was stationed in Blair-more as corporal in charge.

BLAIRMORE BOY LANDS IN EASTERN CANADA

Word was received Wednesday night of the arrival of the good ship Lady Nelson at an Atlantic port with several hundred wounded and ill Canadian and United States servicemen, including several RCAF personnel repatriated from German prison camps in the recent prisoner exchange with Germany.

One of the contingent mentioned over the air was Private J. S. Zak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zak, of Blairmore, who suffered the loss of a leg and other injuries.

No word is given as to whether or not or when Private Zak will be permitted to proceed west.

DOLLAR DAY WAGE BOOST FOR MINERS

The three-man royal commission investigating wage demands of 5,500
Alberta and British Columbia miners on Monday directed a $1-a-day wage increase, retroactive to November 1, to miners not above the rank of foreman or comparable rank, and two weeks' vacation with pay after twelve months employment.

The miners had asked for pay increase of $2 a day, vacation with pay,
and time and a half for overtime.

The commission, having considered the whole of the circumstances surrounding the application for increases and changes in working conditions, and finding that the requirements of Sections 25 and 29 of the wartime wages control order have been sufficiently satisfied, therefore directs:

1. An increase in the wages paid to persons engaged in manual employment in the operation of underground coal mines in the provinces of Alberta and British Columbia of $1 per day for all day-wage contract and other employees not above the rank of foreman or comparable rank;
2. Two weeks' holiday with pay at the basic daily wage rate to be granted to such employees who between April 1 and September 30 in any year have continued in the employment of any one employer for at least 12 consecutive months, and provided that such employee has not been absent from his employment for more than 90 days, including Sundays, holidays and vacation during such 12-month period; except through causes beyond his control;
3. That the foregoing be effective as of and from November 1, 1943, as to any employees who were at work on that date, and as of and from the date of resumption of work in the case of all other employees.

Pithead votes of miners of the district, taken on Monday, were said to be largely favorable.

COWLEY OLDTIMER HONORED

On the night of November 18th, Mr. Robert Littleton was the guest of honor at his home when a few of his friends surprised him on the occasion of his seventy-fifth birthday.

The evening was spent playing "500," prizes being won by Mrs. Littleton, Mrs. G. Parry, William Tustation and Jack Welsh.

Mr. Littleton was presented with a leather bridge set commemorating the occasion. A delectable turkey supper was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. Risdon, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Gunn, Mr. and Mrs.
G. Parry, Mrs. M. Milvain, Mrs. G.
Welsh, Jack Welsh, Mrs. I. Irwin and William Tustation.

SERVICE REGULATIONS COVERING EMPLOYMENT IN HOLIDAY SEASON

Arthur MacNamara, director of National Selective Service, has announced that under an order signed by Hon. Humphrey Mitchell, minister of labor, under the civilian regulations special provision has been made to facilitate the engaging of workers for the Christmas rush by the post office department and retail trade.

From December 13 to January 5 the post office department may engage women over 44 and men over 59 years of age without first securing service permits. In any case, where it is desired to retain after January 5th one of these employees so taken on,
it will become necessary on that date to secure a permit. Students and teachers may be engaged for employment during their Christmas vacation
without a Selective Service permit.
In areas where there is no shortage of female employees for essential industries, Selective Service officers may permit the employment of women under 44 during the holiday season.

In relaxing the regulations to assist the Christmas rush, it is still necessary to maintain employment in general for the protection of essential industries.

UNION METHODS SCORED

Edmonton, Nov. 25.—The royal commission investigating wage demands of Alberta and British Columbia miners, members of District 18, United Mine Workers of America, today declared in its report that "it unanimously condemns the methods adopted by the UMWA in the existing circumstances" surrounding the union's action in calling the men on strike.

The report, made public today by Mr. Justice G. B. O'Connor, chairman of the three-man commission, said the commission made a "determined effort to secure a reconsideration of the UMWA of their intention to go on strike," and added that "in the opinion of the commission, the action of the UMWA was ill-conceived, unwarranted and against the national interest."

THE HUTTERITES

How far is the Dominion government going to go in protection of the interests of sects that are opposed on religious grounds to taking up arms in defence of the country?

Canadian boys are conscripted for war. The government assumes full authority to dictate their lives in time of emergency. It sends these boys out of the country, and at the same time permits the non-fighting sects to benefit by all stimulated war prices and to extend their holdings.
Are the Hutterites to be permitted to acquire all of Southern Alberta?
Are they going to reap the financial rewards of war years, while old-time Canadians have to give up land because their sons have been drafted or enlisted to fight in defence of their country? At what point is the government going to take a stand? The High River Times.

C. V. Compton, noted prohibition leader in Texas, has $91 worth of liquor on hand which he has no intention of drinking, since he is a shallow dry; he has no license to sell; he wouldn't give it to friends, for that would be compromising his principles. All Compton wants is his $91, promised him, he says, by the state liquor control board. Compton said he put up the money on a lend-lease basis to prove that school children could legally buy liquor at package stores without hindrance.

The old Lebel store building at Pincher Creek has been converted into a temporary isolation hospital; scarely having broken out among the children of the convent.

NEW TRADE-TRAINING COURSES ARE APPROVED

Hon. Humphrey Mitchell announces that two new trade training courses have recently been approved by the Department of Labor.

At the Teachers' Training College at Hamilton, courses are being given to about 30 men who will be trained as instructors and will be available for trade training of members of the armed forces after discharge. Nearly all of the 30 are themselves veterans, and are qualified mechanics in one or other of the trades.

While the Dominion government
meets the entire cost of the course, it is being carried out in co-operation with the province of Ontario.

Through arrangements between the Department of Labor and provincial authorities, a series of courses will be given during the present winter season at which instruction will be in cheese and butter making and assistants. Each course will run for about three months. Already two courses are under way, one at Guelph, with sixty men and four women in attendance, and a small group at St.
Hyacinthe. It is expected that over 600 persons will be trained at these courses during this winter.

Courses will be given in Ontario,
Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Quebec, and those selected for the training will be from the farm.

HILLCREST HAPPENINGS

A bazaar, consisting of needle work and home cooking, was held in the Catholic hall on the afternoon of Saturday last under auspices of the St. Theresa Association. Tea was served. During the evening bingo and the draw for two chickens and a cushion were features. Miss C. Bosetti was lucky winner of the chicken, and Miss M. Lipnicka the cushion. Around $130 was realized.

LAC Steve Ulrich, RCAF, returned to his post at Calgary after visiting his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. M.
Ulrich.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lewis have taken up residence in Calgary. Mr. Lewis recently resigned his post in the local office of Hillcrest-Mohawk Collieries.

P. O. C. Andrew was up on Lethbridge over the week end and on a visit to his wife and daughter.

John Podgornik and John Bogo, who sustained injuries in the mine,
are receiving treatment at Banff.

L. Gorek is a patient in hospital at Blairmore, having suffered injuries in the Greenhill mine.

NOT A PROPOSAL

The following is a letter received by one of the personnel of No. 19 SFTS, who thought it merited publishing:

Darling: You'll be shocked, but I have tried to lead up to this time and time again. Somehow I never could.
Since it has been on my mind for several weeks, I've decided to talk to you about it.

As you probably know, when I first met you my feelings were very friendly, but as days and days went by they changed to something more beautiful and sincere. I never would have thought such a problem would arise at so early a date, but there it is.

I don't know if it is proper or even fair to ask you this, but I know that whatever your reply might be,
it will be kind enough not to mention it to a soul. You are the only person I could ever ask this of, so please be positive and sincere, and above all, be truthful.

Darling, lay aside all thoughts of friendship and tell me: Do you think that Pistol Packin' Mama should carry a gun without a permit?

TEMPERANCE SUNDAY IN SOUTHERN ALBERTA

Sunday, November 28th, will be Temperance "Field Day" in Southern Alberta. Churches of all denominations will co-operate and receive speakers who will present the present situation in Alberta and the Dominion.

The "Field Day" is under the auspices of the Associated Temperance Forces of Alberta, and is one of a series that organization is holding,
covering the entire province.

Following the "Field Day," organizing conventions will be held in Medicine Hat on Monday, November 29th, and Lethbridge on Tuesday, November 30th. These conventions will be not only for the cities of Medicine Hat and Lethbridge, but for the region constituent to each city.

Among the speakers expected to take part are Mrs. Grace Knight, Dominion president, WCTU; Mrs. F.
G. Gravette, Calgary; J. A. Wing-blade, MLA, Wetaskiwin, and Ben H.
Spence, Toronto, acting secretary of the Associated Temperance Forces.

EXPIRY DATE FOR COUPONS EXTENDED

Tea, coffee and sugar coupons in ration book No. 2 will expire on December 31st. This is a month's extension from the original expiry date set for November 30. Under the new order, Book No. 2 goes out of circulation at the end of the year.

TWO TO ONE FAVOR COMMISSION AWARD

Coal miners of Alberta and British Columbia on Monday voted two to one award.

Everybody Welcome

ADAM BONNE WRITES

On Active Service,
November 8, 1943.

Dear Roddy:

Just received four copies of The Enterprise and believe me they were more than welcome. It's nice to hear what the folks back home are doing.
Had a nice trip over and enjoyed it very much. Can't say I enjoy the climate over here—too much rain and fog to suit me.

I was fortunate enough to locate some of the Blairmore boys. I saw Montalbetti, Albert Chappell, Harry and George Lord, and several others from The Pass. Needless to say we had quite a reunion.
Must report for duty in a few minutes so must leave you. Say hello to Bartlett and Jim Smith and don't forget to keep The Enterprise coming.

Yours sincerely,
ADAM.

"v"

Some local business places that have been more than infested with the chronic loafer have decided to cope with the situation by installing chairs, the seats of which are specially upholstered with a good quantity of the sharpest spikes. Should this not have the desired effect, some other "brain"
medicine will be used.

British Empire Way Of Life Is World Example

LONDON.—Field Marshal Jan Christian Smuts, prime minister of South Africa, in a speech here previewed "colonial victory, victory complete" for the Allies and recommended for "the dark days thereafter" the British Empire way of life as an example of how the world could live in peace.

The Empire's elder statesman made no guess on when the war will end when he spoke to the Royal Empire Society, his second speech since arriving in Britain Oct. 5. In his first address, at the London Conference Oct. 19, he predicted a grand assault on Europe in 1944.

Smuts disclosed he came to Britain at the special invitation of Prime Minister Churchill to take a hand in war work and post-war problems and said he is devoting all his time to the task.

Smuts told his audience that: "I have no doubt of the end whenever it may come. I have no doubt that with our grim and unflinching determination to spend ourselves to the uttermost and put our uttermost efforts into the struggle we shall win a colossal victory, victory complete."

After the war, he said, there will be "disrupted humanity, the world milling around in suffering and destruction such as never was known before." The British Empire way of life, along with the Commonwealth's good feeling, comradeship and common outlook could be "a light" to the other three-quarters of the world.

TAKE NEW COURSE

Women Officers Of R.C.A.F. Learning To Interpret Air Photographs

OTTAWA.—Nine officers of the R.C.A.F. Women's Division who arrived overseas recently are taking a course as photographic interpreters, the air force announced.

This marks the first time Canadian women have been selected for the course, although members of the British Women's Auxiliary Air Force have been employed for some time.

Highly secret, the course deals with interpretation of details of photographs taken over Germany and occupied Europe and qualified workers must have comprehensive knowledge of enemy territory and armed forces, communications and industries; must be able to read maps and charts easily and to interpret land markings, both camouflaged and real.

INDUSTRY SURVEY

To Ensure No Let-Up In Post-War Employment

LONDON.—Immediate steps to survey Canadian industry with a view to peacetime conversion were advocated by J. Gray Turgeon, Liberal member of parliament for Carleton Place, and chairman of the House of Commons committee on reconstruction and re-establishment.

Mr. Turgeon told the Canadian club here that he was speaking for himself rather than for the committee when he said the whole future of capitalism and initiative in business affairs was at stake in the near future. He said it was the nation's responsibility to ensure no let-up in post-war employment.

CHANGE IN LAW

Collective Bargaining Will Be Made Compulsory In War Industries

HALIFAX.—Hon. L. D. Currie, Nova Scotia minister of mines and labor, said that collective bargaining in war industries all over Canada will be made compulsory by a federal enactment "in the near future," and provinces which formerly had no collective bargaining laws will have them drawn up.

Mr. Currie has just returned from conferences in Ottawa between Dominion and provincial labor representatives on compulsory collective bargaining.

DESTROY ARSENAL
BERNE.—Despatches from Grenoble, France, to the Swiss newspaper La Suisse said Grenoble citizens had attacked a German arsenal in that city, slaying 10 Nazi soldiers and blowing up a powder magazine. Fifteen Frenchmen were reported killed.

PROPAGANDA FOR JAPS
LONDON.—The Tokyo radio claimed that Japanese planes had sunk a large Allied aircraft carrier, two medium-sized carriers, three cruisers and a "large warship" not otherwise identified in a dawn attack south of Bougainville. 2543

STRICKEN NATIONS

Canada Expected To Supply Dairy Products For Relief Program

OTTAWA.—Canada is expected to supply dairy products and possibly some clothing and livestock as its contribution to the $2,500,000,000 United Nations relief and rehabilitation program outlined in Atlantic City by a UNRRA spokesman.

The first breakdown of the probable cost shows that Canada likely will be asked to contribute $50,000,000. It is expected contributions will be made either in cash or in kind and Canada probably will be among those nations supplying commodities. It has been suggested here that the Dominion's contributions would be mostly in foodstuffs, such as butter, cheese, eggs, condensed milk and concentrated and dehydrated foods. Some clothing also might be sent to liberated countries and also livestock to replenish the dwindling herds of Europe.

WAR CRIMINALS

Names Of Nine German Officials Mentioned In Broadcast

LONDON.—The names of nine German officials wanted as war criminals for the massacre of students at Prague, Nov. 17, 1939, were broadcast from London in a Czechoslovak transmission.

The list was headed by Baron Konstantin Neurath, "first protector" of Bohemia-Moravia, and included Deputy Director Karl Hermann Frank and a number of Gestapo officials.

Plan Finishing Campaign For War In Europe

LONDON.—Decisions of immense importance are believed to have been made recently by Allied leaders on the final plan for invasion of northwest Europe and preparations have undoubtedly been pushed forward for a gigantic assault that will dwarf every Allied military effort so far.

The day and hour of the grand offensive against Germany will probably be decided soon along with Germany's immediate future in defeat.

The allocation and organization of forces selected for the assault goes forward. The forces are assembling and training in Britain and elsewhere. Hundreds of families have been evacuated from southern England and in that part of the country invasion armies are hard at work.

Lt.-Gen. Jacob L. Devers, United States army commander in the European theatre, referred in a speech to a "master plan" that will set into motion what may be the greatest military undertaking of all time.

The recent conference at Moscow of British, American and Russian foreign ministers appears to have had a vital bearing on the intentions of the Allies and there are well-founded rumors here that the long-awaited conference of Prime Minister Churchill, President Roosevelt and Premier Stalin may be held shortly, perhaps before the end of the year.

The big three would put the finishing touches to the offensive plans for 1944 and their military staffs would link the detailed plans together. Close military planning is imperative to ensure that the Russian, British and American armies operate in concert in the attack that might well be the finishing campaign of the war in Europe.

Offers Congratulations

Air Marshal L. S. Broadner, C.B., D.S.C., left, offers congratulations and best wishes to his successor as Chief of the Air Staff, Air Vice Marshal Robert Leckie, C.B., D.S.O., D.F.C. The occasion was the announcement that Air Marshal Broadner is soon to go overseas to assume command of the expanded operations of the R.C.A.F. Air Marshal Leckie, who will take over command in Canada, has been in charge of all R.C.A.F. training.

Britain's Largest Transport Flies To Canada

A view in Montreal of the giant British transport, the Avro-York, which recently made its first flight from England to Canada. A transport version of the famous Lancaster bomber, the Avro-York is a high-wing monoplane with a 102-foot wingspan and an overall length of 78 feet. It has four Rolls-Royce Merlin engines and can carry more than 50 passengers. One of the passengers who flew in the big plane from England was Roy Chadwick, designer of the York and the Lancaster.

DOMINION-PROVINCIAL LABOR CONFERENCE DISCUSSES MACTAGUE REPORT

Representatives from all over Canada attended the sessions of the conference on labor relations between the Dominion and the provinces, held in Ottawa, Ont. Above is a view of the conference table with Hon. Humphrey Mitchell, Dominion labor minister, at the head. To the left of Mr. Mitchell is A. MacNamara, deputy minister, and to his right, Paul Martin, M.P., parliamentary assistant to the minister of labor. The object of the conference was exhaustive discussion of the MacTague report.

USE NEW SYSTEM

Cargo Of Tankers Protected By Anti-Torpedo Device

LONDON.—A simple anti-torpedo "secret defence weapon" for tankers was disclosed by the ministry of shipping, which said it had saved thousands of gallons of gasoline and oil supplies.

Compressed air is the basis of the new system. An airline is fitted the full length of the tanker, and is connected at both ends to a compressor pump. If the ship is torpedoed, air is pumped into the damaged compartments at the desired pressure, and the rush of water is checked and forced out.

Through the use of the compressor pump, one tanker hauling 12,000 tons of benzine and kerosene was brought 800 miles to port after being torpedoed near the bow, the tanker then returned 11,000 miles to the United States for repairs.

Says Canada Can Support A Huge Population

NEW YORK.—Dr. Griffith Taylor, head of the department of geography at the University of Toronto, said that industrial expansion, based on fuel and metal resources, will account for settlement and development of the remaining sparsely populated areas of the world.

Addressing the Herald Tribune forum on current problems, he said the rush to pioneer lands in this century is no longer outstanding, largely due to the drop in the birth rate in most civilized countries. Australia and Canada, he said, appear to offer the best opportunities for future settlement because of the climate and natural resources of their undeveloped areas.

Speaking on "Geography and National Planning," Dr. Taylor said Canada eventually will support 40,000,000 to 50,000,000 people before its 2,000,000 square miles of unpopulated land are saturated. Although in much of this area the cold is intense and there is "often too much water," he said Canada is rich in oil, ore and lumber resources which lie adjacent to the major intercontinental air routes of the near future.

"Canada, however, is not a satisfactory country for unassisted immigrants in its present condition. Lack of drainage is a greater drawback than the short duration of summer and the drainage of these huge areas of rather swampy soil can only be carried out by vast government expenditure. The present is not the time to do this, but it will be done when the better parts of newly-settled Canada are saturated."

In discussing Canada's population possibilities, Dr. Taylor mentioned Alberta's coal and tar sands. He said the estimated coal resources of Alberta total some 600,000,000 tons, the second largest deposit in the world. The tar sands of McMurray contain resources of bitumen "in which oil enough to supply the whole world for more than a century is known to occur."

Dr. Taylor added: "Extraction is not difficult, but it is of course cheaper to use liquid petroleum at present."

HEAVY FINE

NEW YORK.—The Nazi-controlled Mussolini regime is reported to have fined Milan 100,000,000 lire ($1,000,000) and to have raised from 1,000 to 2,000 the number of hostages seized from the defiant population to stem civilian violence against the army, radio Sardinia said.

Better Roads Plan Urged For Post-War Work

CALGARY.—At the conclusion of a two-day conference of provincial highway ministers, deputy ministers, engineers and other government officials, a resolution was passed urging the Dominion government to provide funds for a cross-Canada highway construction program following the war.

The resolution urged federal assistance be given for provincial road development as a permanent national policy.

It also asked that federal funds be provided for post-war highway construction extending over a period of not less than five years from the end of the world conflict or at such earlier date as may prove to be advisable.

The extensive post-war highway construction plan contemplated in the resolution would assist in the rehabilitating of men of the armed forces and persons employed in war industries.

The resolution asks the federal government to "state its policy on this important and urgent matter."

The conference, held under auspices of the Canadian Good Roads Association, was attended by highway ministers of seven provinces and representatives of highway departments of all nine provinces.

Highway extensions and development will provide useful employment for many thousands in the readjustment period following the war, Hon. A. T. Proctor, minister of highways and transportation for Saskatchewan, and president of the Canadian Good Roads Association, declared in his report to the annual meeting of the association here.

"Details are now being worked out so that our highways departments may be ready to go into immediate action if, as, and when it may be deemed advisable to do so during the reconstruction period," Hon. Mr. Proctor said.

"A survey of the road building programs being developed by our provincial governments shows them to be the most comprehensive ever planned in the history of Canadian road building."

"During the past three years road building in Canada has been more or less at a standstill and the deteriorating effects of inadequate maintenance are to be found in many sections of our country."

STOPPING DISCRIMINATION

In the Alberta School Act there is a section which provides for complete equality of women and men teachers. It reads: "Notwithstanding anything herein contained, women shall be upon an absolute equality with and have the same rights and privileges, and be subject to the same penalties and disabilities as men, under this Act."

Some school boards have made a ruling that men shall be retired at 65 and women at 60. The Alberta Teachers' Association has taken exception to such a rule, claiming it to be a violation of the School Act. His Honor Judge A. M. Macdonald, sitting as a board of reference, has upheld the teachers' position. Boards may not make one retirement rule for women and another for men.

Similarly the rule of some school boards against the employment of married women is affected by the decision. Some boards dismiss women teachers as soon as they marry, but in some cases hire them back again as "substitute" teachers at a lower rate of pay. The teachers' association intends to stop that practice.

There was no class of workers anywhere who were in greater need for a strong organization to protect their rights than the teachers. In their association in Alberta they have such an organization. All organized labor will be with them in their fight for better conditions. — Canadian Mine-worker.

A recent model of HMCS Truro, minesweeper on service with the Canadian Navy, and of which the town of Truro, N.S., is patron, was designed and built by 78-year-old Murdoch Anderson, of Pictou. Mr. Anderson, in his early days was a well known marine engineer and expert machinist. This is only one of many models constructed by him.

Like discovering a tin tube was the realization that from 70,000 used tin tubes turned in by Canadians during the past two months 12,802 pounds of tin were produced. With all the main sources of tin in the hands of the Japs, Canadians know that turning in old tubes for new is both a legal obligation and a patriotic duty. Where else?

It was one of those days when there was nothing doing in the bank branch in a small town. The staff had got through somehow until it was time to close. WASTE paper is a valuable war material—don't throw it away or burn a scrap of it! Canada needs it—needs it badly—needs it NOW!

Paper wraps up the detonation charges in land mines... holds the charges of parachute flares in place... is used for welding in war uses of waste paper.

Paperboard cartons are the most important shipping containers on this continent. They are made of waste paper. Shells, gas masks, munitions, field telephones, shell casings, food, clothing and other materials are shipped to England in these cases. Thousands of them must be made, and made quickly.

This ever-increasing demand is causing an acute shortage of waste paper. It's a shortage which you can overcome by saving every scrap of paper and giving it regularly to your Salvage Committee.

THESE MATERIALS ARE VITAL TO WAR INDUSTRY METALS (OF IRON AND STEEL) RAGS PAPER FATS AND BONES

ALL war industries need rags... handfuls of rags... pounds of rags... tons of rags. And you can help supply them.

Without rag wipers to clean the cutting lubricant from planes, millers, drills, lathes, Canadian war workers would be inefficient, their output reduced, their efforts hampered.

Without rags, explosive plants would slow up, aeroplane factories would find their production cut, and wheels of shell factories would dawdle.

Start an old-fashioned rag bag in your home today. All kinds of old, worn-out, too small and otherwise useless garments are badly needed by war industries—everything from cotton underwear to old shirts and ties—from Grandpa's red flannels to Grandson's seafaring corduroy pants.

These are real shreds of war which you can supply. Every rag in your home should go to war industries through your Salvage Committee. Clean out and clean up on Hitler!

Fighting Canada's Battles In Northern Manitoba And Saskatchewan Bushlands

(By J. P. De Wet, Secretary, Manitoba Chamber of Mines)
(An interesting continued story of the great Flin Flon mine)

IN this greatest of all the wars in man's history, in which the suppletion and the products of science are a vital factor, the adequate and continuous supply of metals is essential to the winning of battles.

Take the matter of copper as an example of a familiar and lowly metal whose usefulness in mankind first became known to us in early childhood in the form of pennies to buy cent suckers at the store. Today, copper is an indispensable element to the soldier, the sailor and the airman in a variety of capacities ranging from the brass cartridge case of the rifleman to the wire that carries the electric current from the generator to the motors of trucks, tanks and aircraft. A bomber aeroplane uses copper wire by the mile, and tons of it go into a battleship. The important detection device called radar, which helped Britain to beat off Hitler's air attacks and now aids the fighting men on land, on sea and in the air to detect the proximity of enemies, owes its usefulness in large measure to copper.

The Town of Flin Flon

The strategic mine is produced in great tonnages amid a setting of forest and lake on the boundary line between Manitoba and Saskatchewan, a little south of latitude 55. Here in a town called Flin Flon, population between 8,000 and 9,000, men drawn but the equally vital metals, zinc and cadmium, and in addition such important metals as gold, silver, selenium and tellurium, each of which has its place in the nation's war effort—zinc in a variety of strategic uses almost as numerous as copper; cadmium as a protection against corrosion in submarines and useful as a self-lubricating metal; gold for the balancing of Canada's trade in war and in peace, and for the purchase of supplies and services in foreign battlefields; silver essential in currency at home and as a substitute metal for tin in solder, copper and other metals; selenium and tellurium in improving the machinability of copper and copper alloys; selenium in the hardening of steel and in the electrical industry; and tellurium in toughening rubber and lead and as an anti-corrosive for sea mines.

Tom Creighton Found The Mine

The finding of the valuable ore body, destined to become one of Canada's major sources of supply of strategic war metals, at Flin Flon, by prospector Tom Creighton, and its subsequent development to the production stage many years later by Hudson Bay Mining and Smelting Co., Limited, who utilized for this purpose combined Canadian and U.S. capital, is one of the great stories of romance and practical business accomplishment of Western Canada's had not been before, spotted a little copper stain and some chalcocite (copper ore) exposed on a spot which had been blown clear of snow by the wind. He made a mental note of the location and then returned to his camp to continue his winter trapping, with the intention of examining it further in the spring.

Capital Became Interested

His spring examination confirmed his opinion that the find was one of interest, and the following mid-August a thorough examination by Creighton and Jack Mosher, a prospecting partner, definitely established its importance. Their financial backer, Jack Hammell of Toronto, was informed of the find, and subsequent exploration demonstrated its real importance.

After underground examination, both by diamond drilling and by a shaft and other workings, had disclosed an indicated ore body of 18,000,000 to 20,000,000 tons. American mining capital became interested and a decision was arrived at to find out what science could do in the way of separating the valuable metals from their close chemical and physical association with each other and the enclosing rock.

Selective Flotation Solved Problem
About that time mining men all over the world were beginning to recognize the remarkable efficiency of a new process called selective flotation in the treatment of complex ores. About a million dollars were spent by the United States mining investors in proving the adaptability of such a process to the ore from the Flin Flon ore body. First they tested the new process on a laboratory scale, and it worked. Then they built a pilot mill at Flin Flon capable of treating 25 to 30 tons daily to test the process on a commercial basis. Again it worked after some modifications.

The outcome of these successful

Young Danish Aviator Reached Britain In Small Gypsy Moth
A young Danish army aviator escaped in a small Gypsy Moth plane from under the noses of the Germans and flew from Denmark to Britain a few weeks ago, it has been revealed. COLORFUL HOOKED RUG LENDS CHARM TO A ROOM

Simple and Inexpensive to Make A hooked rug gives your home such a warm, intimate air! And you can hook this charming design easily. Use any material you have on hand (though woolen is best) and as for colors—the more the merrier! Lovely together are rose, green, black, beige, orchid.

How to begin? On a large piece of burlap draw the shape of the rug, 23 by 37 inches. Then draw a 1-inch border and rule off 15 boxes, each 7 inches square. The formal and geometric designs you draw from patterns.

Now, after sewing carpet binding round your rug and tacking to a wood frame, you can hook.

With one hand, hold a strip of fabric (cut 1/2 inch wide) under the rug. With the other hand thrust the hook through the burlap and pull up the strip, leaving a loop 1/2 inch high on top of the burlap. Carefully following your color scheme, hook the same way until the rug is finished.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

NOVEMBER 25

TRUTHFULNESS AT ALL TIMES

Golden text: Wherefore, putting away falsehood, speak ye truth each one to his neighbor, for we are members one of another. Ephesians 4: 25.

Lesson: Exodus 20:16; 23:1; 7: Matthew 5:33-37; John 8:42-45.

Devotional Reading: Revelation 22: 10-17.

Explanations and Comments

The Law of Truthfulness, Exodus 20:16. This law refers primarily to the giving of false testimony in a court of justice, and then, naturally, to any false testimony about another given under any circumstance.

"Any damaging statement against a neighbor's character is a most deadly weapon. It is your business to know whether it is true or false before you touch it. Indeed, true or false, you have no right to amuse yourself with a thing so deadly. Unless there is some good and sufficient reason, you must not bear even true witness against your neighbor. The rule is: Keep still, as long as you possibly can."—William R. Richards.

An Extension of the Ninth Commandment—Exodus 23:1. "Thou shalt not take up a false report. Blander has been aptly compared to counterfeit money, which people who would never be the first to take it up, the first to circulate it, do not hesitate to pass along when it comes into their hands. 'Tale bearers are as bad as tale makers.'"

For lack of truth, the earth goeth out; and where there is no whisper, contention ceaseth. . . . The words of a whisperer are as deadly morsels, and they go down into the innermost part (Proverbs 18:12, 28).

Keep thee far from the false matter. Literally a "painted matter," i.e. a falsehood arrayed in glowing colors. The word suggests what is artificially colored, as in bright red, to dazzle and deceive. So understood, it teaches a solemn lesson. In all times, evil and error have assumed deceptive disguises, robbing themselves in garments of truth and goodness. We have been warned against false witness and false reports, and now are warned against all painted imitations or glided shows" (A. T. Pierson).

Jesus Extended the Law Against Perjury to Every Vow and Unnecessary Oath, Matthew 5:33-37. Again ye have heard that it was said to them of old time (see verses 20 and 27) Thou shalt not swear thyself. Thou shalt not swear falsely; Lev. 19:12. Thou shalt perform unto the Lord thy vows, Num. 30:2; Dt. 23:21. But I say unto you, Swear not at all.

I have been living in England for just over three years. During these three years, in the towns and villages of Great Britain, in trains and on roads, in parks and streets, in shops and shelters, pubs and clubs, in drawing rooms and in factories, so many faces smiled at me, so many eyes greeted me, so many friendly hands shook mine, and so many lips spoke a kindly welcome to me. largely from the towns and villages of the western prairie provinces daily hoist from the depths of friendly mother earth over 6,000 tons of ore from which other men from the prairie acres extract not only copper, northern. Creighton, who combined prospecting with trading, had left camp on New Year's Day, 1915, to see if he could find and shoot a moose, and on a high ridge near a small lake he experiments was a momentous decision, made in 1927, which had a far-reaching effect on the fortunes of Western Canada. The decision was to spend $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 for the purpose of establishing an important industry employing hundreds of men in the northern Manitoba bushland, namely a mine equipped with metallurgical plants capable of treating 3,000 tons daily and a hydro-electric power plant to supply the necessary power.

Manitoba And Saskatchewan

Both Front

At this point a new link between two prairie provinces was forged. Canada as a Dominion is a partnership of nine provinces, and within that partnership is a subsidiary partnership of Manitoba and Saskatchewan in the possession of a new industry financed jointly by investors of the United States and of Canada. The dual interest of the two provinces in the mine lies in the fact that the ore body straddles the boundary line between Manitoba and Saskatchewan. One opening into the mine, the North Main shaft, parts of the metallurgical plants and the town of Flin Flon are in Manitoba. The second opening, the South Main Shaft, is in Saskatchewan, just a mile south of the North Main shaft, and the hydro-electric power plant also is in that province. So Hudson Bay Mining and Smelting Co., Limited, employs men in both provinces and pays taxes to both provincial governments, as well as to the Dominion of Canada.

He is confident that we are winning, but he is equally certain that we must not relax our efforts until Germany is defeated, completely and utterly.
